90. Franklin D. Roosevelt Proclamation on October 31, 1939. A day to “give thanks to the Ruler of the Universe” set apart on November 23, 1939.<sup>116</sup> Reflecting on the closing year motivated the call to prayer.
91. Franklin D. Roosevelt Proclamation on August 7, 1940. A “day of prayer” set apart on September 8, 1940.<sup>117</sup> Reflecting on the growing war in Europe motivated the call to prayer.
92. Franklin D. Roosevelt Proclamation on November 9, 1940. A day to “give thanks for our preservation” and for “us [to] pray: Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage; We humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honourable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogancy, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail; Amen” set apart on November 21, 1940.<sup>118</sup> Reflecting on the closing year motivated the call to prayer.
93. Franklin D. Roosevelt Proclamation on November 8, 1941. A day for “us [to] reflect . . . on the goodness of God and, in giving thanks, [for] us [to] pray for a speedy end to strife” set apart on November 20, 1941.<sup>119</sup> Reflecting on the closing year motivated the call to prayer.

31. President Richard Nixon - Proclamation 4093 - Thanksgiving Day, 1971 - November 5, 1971 – “And for our heritage - a land rich with the bountiful blessings of God, and the freedom to enjoy those rich blessings - we give thanks to God Almighty in this time, and for all time ... I ... in accordance with the wish of the Congress as expressed in Section 6103 of Title 5 of the United States Code, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 25, 1971, as a day of national thanksgiving.”<sup>150</sup>
32. President Richard Nixon - Proclamation 4170 - Thanksgiving Day, 1972 - November 17, 1972 – “From Moses at the Red Sea to Jesus preparing to feed the multitudes, the Scriptures summon us to words and deeds of gratitude, even before divine blessings are fully perceived. From Washington kneeling at Valley Forge to the prayer of an astronaut circling the moon, our own history repeats that summons and proves its practicality. Today ... the world more than ever needs to hear America’s perennial harvest message: ‘Take heart! Give thanks! To see clearly about us is to rejoice; and to rejoice is to worship the Father; and to worship Him is to receive more blessings still.’”<sup>151</sup>
33. President Richard Nixon - 18 - Proclamation 4181 - National Moment of Prayer and Thanksgiving - January 26, 1973 – “As a people with a deep and abiding faith, we know that no great work can be accomplished without the aid and inspiration of Almighty God. No time could be more fitting for grateful prayer and meditation than the opening moment of the peace we have achieved with His help ... [A]s requested by the Congress, [I] do hereby designate 7:00 p.m., e.s.t., January 27, 1973 as a National Moment of Prayer and Thanksgiving, and the 24-hour period beginning then as a National Day of Prayer and Thanksgiving.”<sup>152</sup>
34. President Richard Nixon - Proclamation 4255 - Thanksgiving Day, 1973 - November 16, 1973 – “In the first Thanksgiving, man affirmed his determination to live in God’s grace and to act in God’s will on the shores of a new land of promise. In this Thanksgiving season we reaffirm that determination.”<sup>153</sup>

78. President Ronald Reagan - Proclamation 5429 - National Day of Prayer - January 13, 1986 – “Prayer is deeply woven into the fabric of our history from its very beginnings. The same Continental Congress that declared our independence also proclaimed a National Day of Prayer. And from that time forward, it would be hard to exaggerate the role that prayer has played in the lives of individual Americans and in the life of the Nation as a whole.”<sup>197</sup>
79. President Ronald Reagan - Proclamation 5490 - Prayer for Peace, Memorial Day, 1986 - May 22, 1986 – “On Memorial Day, let us pray for peace-not only for ourselves, but for all those who seek freedom and justice.”<sup>198</sup>
80. President Ronald Reagan - Proclamation 5551 - Thanksgiving Day, 1986 - October 13, 1986 – “Today let us take heart from the noble example of our first President. Let us pause from our many activities to give thanks to Almighty God for our bountiful harvests and abundant freedoms. Let us call upon Him for continued guidance and assistance in all our endeavors. And let us ever be mindful of the faith and spiritual values that have made our Nation great and that alone can keep us great.”<sup>199</sup>
81. President Ronald Reagan - Proclamation 5594 - National Day of Prayer, 1987 - December 22, 1986 – “Though that flame has flickered from time to time, it burns brightest when we are willing, as we ought to be now, to turn our faces and our hearts to God ... Indeed, the true meaning of our entire history as a Nation can scarcely be glimpsed without some notion of the importance of prayer, our Declaration of Dependence on God's favor on this unfinished enterprise we call America ... On our National Day of Prayer, then, we join together as people of
